

TRACTS

If you go to your local Christian bookshop they will have several for you to browse through and can advise you as to what is most popular. Go to <http://bit.ly/2ha7npL> to find your nearest local Christian bookshop.

A useful booklet of long standing is Journey Into Life by Norman Warren, which answers the questions people ask before they say the prayer of commitment – available from www.kingsway.co.uk amongst other places.

Various other booklets available. Amongst these are:

- Why Jesus' by Nicky Gumbel. Alpha resources.
- The Bridge to Life. Navigators.
- What if? From 'Through Faith Missions' . admin@throughfaithmissions.org 01954 210239

There are a large range of booklets from Lifewords, the Scripture Union site – www.sgmlifewords.com – adults, teens and children. The booklets are free but a donation is suggested.

UCB Radio also provides “The Book of Hope” free for various age ranges – see <http://www.ucb.co.uk/onehoperesources>

CPO have a wide range of tracts for purchase at:

There is also the free monthly publication – Inspire magazine – available to all churches – www.inspiremagazine.org.uk .

“Just Grace” can be obtained from Evangelism Explosion - info@ee-gb.org.uk - this booklet gives a clear gospel presentation, explains the implications of Christian commitment and, after suggesting a prayer of response, goes on to set out the foundations for the first steps in discipleship for the new believer.

Others we recommend are:

The God shaped hole – not available but we have produced a version for you to print or use on PowerPoint. Produced by Murray McBride.
